 Trial Court Case #3KN-06-844 CI

5/31/08 MOTION TO CONTINUE & REQUEST FOR ADDITIONAL TIME

COMES NOW Pro Se Appellant, DAVID HAEG, in the above referenced case & hereby requests to continue oral arguments to the October calendar & request for an additional 15 minutes of oral argument for a total of 30 minutes per side.

September is Haeg's busiest month of the year and it would be a great hardship for him to have to participate in oral arguments at that time. In October, however, Haeg will be able to participate. As Haeg is the sole provider for his family he humbly request this motion to continue be granted. Haeg has contacted Appellee Brent Cole by phone to see if he would oppose this and Cole has written a letter stating he does not oppose this continuance. [See attached letter].

In addition Haeg requests that the oral arguments be scheduled in the afternoon, if possible, so that he would have time to drive to Anchorage from his home in Soldotna on the same day oral arguments are scheduled.

This appeal is of great importance to Haeg and to justice. To fully present the issues Haeg requires an additional 15 minutes time in which to present his arguments. Because of the seriousness of this appeal Haeg respectfully requests this court to grant the above motions.

This motion is supported by the accompanying affidavit of appellant.
